1. The Communist Party of Uruguay (CPU) has reportedly received instructions from a foreign source that a new Spanish bulletin will be published in Montevideo and distributed to Communist Parties in other Latin American countries.
2. According to prominent Uruguayan Communists Jose Luis Massera and Julio Dutrenit*, the facilities of the Ediciones Pueblos Unidos, Communist publishing house in Montevideo, will be used in the publication and distribution of the new bulletin.
3. Although no exact information is available concerning the format of the projected bulletin, source stated that it is expected to appear within the next few months.
4. It has been reported that the Ediciones Pueblos Unidos receives publications directly from Moscow, the financial transaction being handled through the Banco de la Republica del Uruguay and the Central Bank of Moscow. This Montevideo bank was also mentioned in a recent report from Sao Paulo. Police in Sao Paulo, following the arrest on 6 June 1949 of two Armenian Communists, discovered on their premises a quantity of Communist literature, edited in Moscow, in the English, French, German, Portuguese, and Spanish languages. According to their markings, these parcels had been sent from Moscow to the Banco de la Republica del Uruguay in Montevideo and had been re-addressed in Montevideo and mailed to Sao Paulo.
